

I feel this should move forward as a consumer. I would like to have the ability to use my home phone or cell phone number at another company.